

•• PARKING TODAY PARKING AWARDS ••

Created and presented by Parking Today magazine, the Parking Today Media's American Parking Awards are an independent competition. In their inaugural year, the awards recognize the leading examples of parking management, enforcement, design and team work.

FAQs: The judging process:

Entry deadline: January 11, 2019

- Entry to the competition is free.
- The Parking Today Media's American Parking Awards is judged by a panel leading experts drawn from across the parking, automotive, consultancy and related fields.
- Each entry is read by at least three jury members prior to short listing
- The jury reserves the right to consider repositioning entries across categories.
- Once entries are considered, follow-up questions and, where necessary, visits may be conducted.
- The full list of judges will be published ahead of the awards ceremony.
- Judges are asked to avoid potential conflicts of interest when assessing or debating entries.
- The jury's decisions remain anonymous, but summaries are made available to entrants who ask after the event.
- The jury's decision is final.

*Note: Submitting an entry acknowledges that edited versions of entries will be published in Parking Today magazine and its related websites in the build-up to the awards. Extended versions of winning entries will be published in Parking Today magazine and on www.parkingtoday.com after the ceremony. If you include commercially sensitive material in an entry, please indicate.

Further information

To discuss the categories, criteria and submitting your entry contact:

Eric Abel

Parking Industry Expo

eric@parkingtoday.com